

LIVEDESIGN

Meet The 2017 ETC LDI Student Sponsorship Recipients

Oct 03, 2017

Every year since 2000, ETC has provided a unique opportunity for lighting design and stage technology students, sponsoring them to attend the LDI Tradeshow . This year, ETC has selected seven recipients of its LDI Student Sponsorship , giving them an all-expense-paid trip to Las Vegas and a full LDI conference pass. The students will get to see the latest entertainment technology, have access to LDI seminars and training, and the opportunity to network with industry professionals at special

4. Jiajing Qi

One of the international recipients of the ETC LDI Student Sponsorship, Jiajing Qi is originally from China. Currently he's a graduate lighting design student at the University of Texas at Austin, where he has served as an assistant lighting designer for Little Women and Momentum. From 2011 to 2016, Jiajing worked on television shows for the Zhejiang Radio and Television Group in Hangzhou, China. He held several roles, including lighting programmer, lighting designer, vice director of the lighting department, and studio manager. During the summer of 2017, Jiajing studied at the Stagecraft Institute of Las Vegas. Jiajing is interested in architectural and broadcast lighting.